

Cook It Up

Host a cook-off competition—just like the Iron Chef television show—for interactive entertainment. Group employees into two teams who cook meals with a professional chef, and a group to judge the results. Michael Bongar Entertainment (718.832.8268) produces the event at a starting price of $10,000.

Liven Up the Loo

Place products in the bathroom—a routine stop at any party. Condé Nast Traveler placed advertiser Carolina Herrera's perfume bottles above the sinks for guests to sample at the mag's 15th anniversary party.

19

Gamble With Your Company's Name

Nothing is more appreciated in a gift bag than a useful gift—after all, who needs another lipstick in a shade they can't wear? Carta Mundi (423.279.9200) can customize decks of cards, from a standard deck of 52 to homegrown games that your company creates that involve a player with your product or brand. The cards can also be cut in different shapes and sizes. One success story: The UK version of Esquire magazine branded its own deck with pictures of past cover girls and packaged it with the newsstand issues last July, resulting in a 35 percent increase in sales.

Sweeten Up the Party

Use these candy-based body paints to jazz up events. Tom and Sally's (800.827.0800) concocts the edible confections, which can be used to decorate the skin and come in two-ounce containers with brushes. The jars of paint are available in four flavored colors: blueberry, lemon, cherry and watermelon.

People in the BiZ

Bulgari's event planner Selmin Arat and public relations director Kristin Florin at the Bulgari promotional party recently held at Paris Studios.

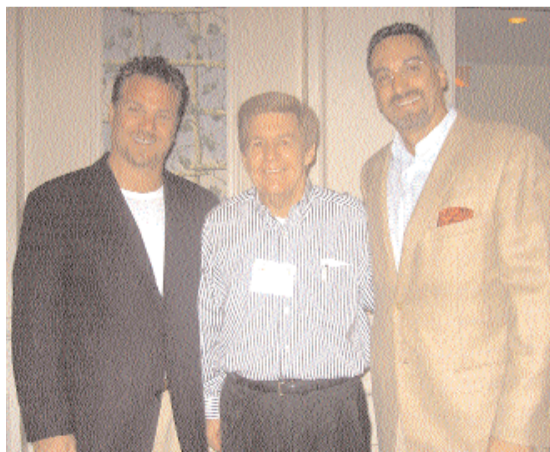

Seenu Ramalingam and Pricilla Garcia of Kovens Conference Center relaxed at the BiZBashFla University & Networking conference.

Aventura Marina's project manager and event planner Ian Kramer and Scott Roth, the Plaza Group, at the L'Oasis Beach Club ground-breaking bash.

Meeting Professionals International (MPI)'s South Florida chapter president-elect Suzanne Moore showed spirit at the MPI 2004 Professional Education Conference in San Antonio.

The Tampa Bay chapter of Meeting Professionals International (MPI) had a blast working together to create their chapter's signature sign at the MPI 2004 Professional Education Conference in San Antonio.

Panache Party Rentals

650 SW 16 Terrace, Pompano Beach, FL 33069
1-800-30-PARTY • www.linenswithpanache.com

Panache Party Rentals is the largest party rental company in South Florida. We employ over 150 people in warehouses totaling over 65,000-sq-ft. with a fleet in excess of 21 trucks. There is an in-house laundry, sewing department, dishwashing area and carpentry shop to service all our equipment at a moments notice. Manufacturing our own linens has proved to be a favorite feature of our clientele. It offers flexibility in quantity, colors and fabrics. All fabrics and hard goods are hand selected for their quality and appeal.

Panache also has offices in Orlando and Tampa to service Central and West Coast of Florida efficiently and quickly.

Staying on the cutting edge of the industry is of utmost importance to Panache. We are a constant force with all the professional organizations and our name is seen at most educational seminars throughout the United States.

We have won Best Booth and Best Tabletop Awards from The Special Event 2003. Panache has also received the American Rental Association Award for Excellence for Best Customer Service and Best Showroom Design.

Most recently, Panache received Event Solutions Spotlight Award for "Rental Company of the Year 2003".

The goal of the Spotlight Awards is to recognize the many outstanding achievements of so many distinguished industry professionals throughout the world. It was an international competition in most categories with the majority of finalists from the United States and Canada. The readers of Event Solutions determined the winners...making them the People's / Peer's Choice Awards. Overall there were 62 finalists in 16 different categories.
